Whereas, the City of Fountain Inn and the Fountain Inn High School Student Council met on this day to share important information and deepen connections between the community and the school; and

Whereas, both City Council and Student Council value collaboration and communication between their two groups; and

Whereas, education is critical to the health and vibrancy of a community, and the students who live in Fountain Inn and those who attend the schools in Fountain Inn are integral members of the community whose voice should carry weight in setting the course of the future of Fountain Inn; and

Whereas, students who attend Fountain Inn schools should engage with their local government in their youth and as they enter into adulthood;

Therefore, the City of Fountain Inn asks all students and their families to celebrate the special bond between our community's schools and our local government and encourages all youth to engage in civic dialogue and help their community thrive.
